
Only the projection/temporal modules and classification heads are optimized; spatial augmentation is sequence-consistent.